

Barend Verachtert

Barend Verachtert is the head of sector for the development of SME research policies and the promotion of SME participation in the 7th Framework Programme for Research and Development of the European Commission (FP7).

Before joining the European Commission in 1998, he was a technology acquisition manager for Plant Genetic Systems NV, a Belgian plant biotechnology company.

He obtained a PhD in biology from the University of Leuven (1988).